All,
Once again, we are going to cancel the Steering Committee conference call for October. If something happens soon in the AWWA/M-H negotiations, I will schedule a call for later this month, or 2nd Wednesday in November.

Please keep your authors/co-authors informed that we are still in a holding pattern, but still plan to go ahead with this manual update as soon as the agreement is in place.

Sorry for the continuing delay and thank you for your patience.

Doug

Steering Committee:

Due to no news on the McGraw-Hill publisher agreement, I am cancelling the September 12 Steering Committee conference call.

If something happens soon, I will schedule a call for later in September, or 2nd Wednesday in October.

Please let your authors/co-authors know we are still in a holding pattern, but still plan to go ahead with this manual update as soon as the agreement is in place.

Sorry for the continuing delay and thank you for your patience.
